LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 4th June, 1971.

BILL No. 69 OF 1971

A Bill further to amend the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament Act 1953

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament (Amendment) Act, 1971. Short title.

2. For section 3 of the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following section shall be substituted, namely:— Substitution of new section for section 3.

20 of 1953. "3. There shall be paid to each officer of Parliament a salary of two thousand, two hundred and fifty rupees per mensem". Salaries of officers of Parliament.

3. In section 5 of the principal Act, the words "and to the Deputy Chairman and the Deputy Speaker a sumptuary allowance of two hundred and fifty rupees per mensem" shall be added at the end. Amendment of section 5.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under Section 3 of the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament Act, 1953, the Deputy Chairman of the Council of States and the Deputy Speaker of the House of the People are entitled to a salary of two thousand rupees per mensem. In 1962, the Deputy Chairman of the Council of States and the Deputy Speaker of the House of the People were given the status of a Minister of State for purposes of warrant of precedence and travelling and daily allowances, but their salary was not made at par with that of a Minister of State then. It is now proposed to equate them in the matter of salary also with a Minister of State by raising their salary to two thousand, two hundred and fifty rupees per mensem. It also proposed to provide for them a sumptuary allowance of Rs. 250 per mensem in order to enable them to meet their official obligations.

NEW DELHI;

RAJ BAHADUR.

The 11th May, 1971.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 193(L)/70, dated the 20th May, 1971 from Shri Raj Bahadur, Minister of Parliamentary Affairs, and Shipping and Transport (Sansadiya Karya tatha Nauwahan aur Pariwahan Mantri) to the Secretary, Lok Sabha.]

The President having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Bill further to amend the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament Act, 1953, recommends the introduction of the Bill under article 117(1) and its consideration by Lok Sabha under article 117(3) of the Constitution.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Under Section 3 of the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament Act, 1953, the Deputy Chairman of the Council of States and the Deputy Speaker of the House of the People are entitled to receive a salary of two thousand rupees per mensem. The proposed provision in clause 2 of the Bill is to increase this salary to two thousand, two hundred and fifty rupees per mensem.

Under Section 5 of the Act referred to above, only the Chairman of the Council of States and the Speaker of the House of the People are entitled to receive a sumptuary allowance of five hundred rupees per mensem. Clause 3 of the Bill makes provision for the Deputy Chairman of the Council of States and the Deputy Speaker of the House of the People also to receive a sumptuary allowance of two hundred and fifty rupees per mensem. Thus, if the provisions proposed in clauses 2 and 3 of the Bill are carried, the additional recurring financial expenditure involved out of the Consolidated Fund of India will be of the order of Rs. 12,000 per annum.

S. L. SHAKDHER,
Secretary.
